Rolla Woman Sentenced for Burglary & Larceny Charges

BISMARCK - United States Attorney Timothy Q. Purdon announced that on August 31, 2010, Courtney Charbonneau, 21, of Rolla, North Dakota, was sentenced before United States District Court Judge Daniel L. Hovland for two counts of burglary and two counts of larceny. Charbonneau pleaded guilty to the charges on May 3, 2010.

Judge Hovland sentenced Charbonneau to one year and three months in federal prison, to be followed by three years of supervised release. Charbonneau was ordered to pay $400 in special assessments to the Crime Victim's Fund and restitution of $13,290.

On April 3, 2009, Charbonneau and two juveniles broke into a residence in the Belcourt area and took money, a PlayStation and keys to a car, using the keys to steal a car parked outside the residence. The car was used to ram into the walls of a bar also in the Belcourt area. Once inside the bar, Charbonneau and the juveniles took alcohol, tills and black lights. After leaving the bar, Charbonneau and the juveniles stole another car parked in the bar parking lot.

The case was investigated by the Bureau of Indian Affairs - Turtle Mountain Agency.

Assistant United States Attorney Brandi Sasse Russell prosecuted the case.
